Which of these audiences rely on labels on laboratory chemicals to protect themselves?

- Laboratory workers
- Emergency responders
- Hazardous waste staff
- All of the above

Which of these terms are NOT included in the internationally-recognized GHS system of chemical hazards?

- Flammable
- Corrosive
- Explosive
- Organic

What chemical property can tell you whether a liquid is flammable at room temperature? Hint: it’s used by the GHS system to determine a chemical’s flammability classification.

- Lower Explosive Limit
- Flashpoint
- Upper Explosive Limit
- Autoignition temperature

Which signal word represents the highest hazard in the GHS system?

- Caution
- Danger
- Warning
- No signal word
Which of these are not impacted by the Globally Harmonized System?

- (Material) Safety Data Sheets
- Labelling of Chemical Containers
- Department of Transportation labels and placards
- Description of chemical hazards

Which of these hazard statements are most likely to be associated with a Category 1 flammable liquid?

- Extremely flammable liquid and vapor
- In contact with water, releases a flammable gas
- Flammable liquid and vapor
- May be corrosive to metals

In the GHS system, what does the STOT designation indicate?

- Special Toxicity or Training Required
- Some Type of Oral Toxicity
- Specific Target Organ Toxicity
- Somewhat Toxic and Teratogenetic